Article 9. Anti-doping

Belgian Cycling's anti-doping regulations apply. In accordance with the laws of the Flemish Community, the Belgian and Flemish anti-doping legislation are also in force.

Location of the control

The anti-doping control takes place in the designated room:

- Gemeentepunt Anzegem > Heirweg 73, 8570 Ingoigem

New procedure: summons via chaperone

From 1 December 2025, there will no longer be a paper list or poster on the finish line. The selection and summons are done as follows:

- Personal summons: The summons is only made by a clearly recognizable chaperone of the anti-doping organization. He will personally inform the rider about the control.
- Availability: Riders are obliged to remain available for a possible check after the end of the race.
- Early registration: You can also be selected when you register. When leaving the race, always pass the finish zone so that the control team can address you.
- Duty to cooperate: Deliberately avoiding a chaperone or being unavailable can be considered a doping violation. Be alert in the finish area and react immediately when an official beckons you.
- Supervision: From the moment of the summons (the first contact), you will remain under the supervision of the chaperone and strictly follow the instructions of the doping control team until the procedure is fully completed.

Article 10.

The following riders must report to the protocol:

- The first three of the match

They will report within a maximum of 10 minutes after their arrival.

Article 11. Environment

A disposable zone is provided in the place as stated in the plans. The organization emphasizes that the course is located in an agricultural zone and densely populated residential zone and that the disposable zones must be used by the riders.

Article 12. Safety rules

The safety rules must be defined in detail, especially those concerning roundabouts, as well as for the riders who have been dropped. The safety rules must be in accordance with the rules drawn up by the authorities.

Article 13. Punishments

The regulations of the Belgian Cycling apply.

Violations of these aforementioned regulations will be punished according to the regulations and penalty scale of Belgian Cycling.

Article 14. Disputes, disputes or unforeseen cases

All disputes, disputes or unforeseen cases relating to the competition are the exclusive competence of the College of Commissioners.
